Voluntary Long Term Disability (LTD) Insurance

Long Term Disability insurance is designed to pay a monthly benefit to you in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. This benefit replaces a portion of your income, thus helping you to meet your financial commitments in a time of need. Buy-up LTD insurance offers you the opportunity to choose one of two levels of LTD coverage.

The base LTD plan is fully paid by your employer, who must be participating in Washington Counties Insurance Fund (WCIF), and provides a basic level of LTD coverage. The difference in premium cost between the base LTD plan and the buy-up option is paid for by you and provides a higher level of LTD coverage. If the policy becomes effective and you do not elect the buy-up option, you will automatically be enrolled in the base LTD plan. Standard Insurance Company (The Standard) has developed this document to provide you with information about the optional coverage you may select through your employer.

Disability Needs Calculator

Your family has a unique set of circumstances and financial demands. To help you figure out the amount of Disability insurance you may need if you become unable to work, The Standard has created a Disability Needs Calculator found at: <http://www.standard.com/calculators/dineeds.html>

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must satisfy the eligibility requirements listed above, serve an eligibility waiting period (if applicable), receive medical underwriting approval (if applicable), and be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Please contact your human resources representative to determine if you must serve an eligibility waiting period and for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Understanding Your Plan Design

Benefit Waiting Period	If your claim for LTD benefits is approved by The Standard, benefits become payable after the benefit waiting period. This is a specified number of days during which you must remain continuously disabled. Benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period. The benefit waiting period for each plan is indicated below.
	<table border="0" style="margin-left: auto; margin-right: auto;"> <tr> <td></td> <td style="text-align: center;">Base LTD Plan</td> <td style="text-align: center;">Buy-up LTD Plan</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Benefit Waiting Period</td> <td style="text-align: center;">180 days</td> <td style="text-align: center;">90 days</td> </tr> </table>		Base LTD Plan	Buy-up LTD Plan	Benefit Waiting Period	180 days	90 days
	Base LTD Plan	Buy-up LTD Plan
Benefit Waiting Period	180 days	90 days
Own Occupation Definition of Disability	For the benefit waiting period and the first 24 months for which LTD benefits are paid, you are considered disabled when you are unable as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation OR are suffering a loss of at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings when working in your own occupation. You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.
Any Occupation Definition of Disability	After the own occupation period of disability, you will be considered disabled if you are unable as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of any occupation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That you are able to perform, due to education, training or experience, • That is available at one or more locations in the local economy, and • In which you can be expected to earn at least 60 percent of predisability earnings within 12 months of returning to work, regardless of whether you are working in that, or any other, occupation.

Maximum Benefit Period

If you become disabled before age 62, LTD benefits may continue during disability until age 65 or to the Social Security Normal Retirement Age (SSNRA) or 3 years 6 months, whichever is longer. If you become disabled at age 62 or older, the benefit duration is determined by the age when disability begins:

Age	Maximum Benefit Period
62	To SSNRA, or 3 years 6 months, whichever is longer
63	To SSNRA, or 3 years, whichever is longer
64	To SSNRA, or 2 years 6 months, whichever is longer
65	2 years
66	1 year 9 months
67	1 year 6 months
68	1 year 3 months
69 +	1 year

Deductible Income

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable. Deductible income includes, but is not limited to:

- Sick pay, annual or personal leave pay, severance pay or other forms of salary continuation (including donated amounts) paid.
- Benefits under any workers' compensation law or similar law
- Amounts under unemployment compensation law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Disability benefits from any other group insurance
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer's retirement plan
- Benefits under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings or compensation included in predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you worked as much as your disability allows
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Benefit Calculation

Example

The LTD benefit amount is determined by multiplying your insured predisability earnings by the specified benefit percentage. This amount is then reduced by deductible income. In the example below, the LTD benefit amount is 60 percent of insured predisability earnings. If your monthly earnings before becoming disabled were $4,500, and you now receive a monthly Social Security disability benefit of $1,200 and a monthly retirement benefit of $900, your monthly LTD benefit would be calculated as follows:

Insured predisability earnings	$4,500
LTD benefit percentage	X 60%
	$2,700
Less Social Security disability benefit	-$1,200
Less retirement benefit	-$900
Amount of LTD benefit	$600

Additional Features

Please see your human resources representative for additional information about the features and benefits below.

24 Hour Coverage	24-hour LTD plans provide coverage for disabilities occurring on or off the job.
Rehabilitation Plan	If you are participating in an approved Rehabilitation Plan, The Standard may include payment of some of the expenses you incur in connection with the plan including but not limited to: training and education expenses, family (child and elder) care expenses, job related expenses and job search expenses.
Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit	If your employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse your employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.
Rehabilitation Incentive Benefit	If you agree to participate in a rehabilitation plan that prepares you to return to work (plan must be approved by The Standard), you may be eligible to receive an additional benefit equal to 10 percent of your predisability earnings. When added to any other amount you receive from The Standard, your total benefit cannot exceed the maximum benefit allowed by the policy.
Survivors Benefit	If you die while LTD benefits are payable, and on the date you die you have been continuously disabled for at least 180 days, a survivors benefit equal to three times your unreduced LTD benefit may be payable (any survivors benefit payable will first be applied to any overpayment of your claim due to The Standard).
Conversion	Allows you to obtain LTD conversion insurance after the termination of your insurance with your employer.
Family Care Expense Benefit	Applies when a disabled employee has returned to work and continues to receive LTD benefits. For 12 months, a portion of expenses (up to $250 per dependent or $500 per family, per month) is deducted from the amount of your work earnings.
